

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS: Dr Suzanne Conboy-Hill

1. Perinatal Stimulation and Adult Behaviour in the Rat. Paper presented to the Experimental Psychology Society Conference, Birkbeck College, January 1981.
2. Nurses' Social Behaviour with Dying Patients. Paper presented to British Psychology Society London Conference, City University, December 1985.
3. Psychological Aspects of Terminal Care. International Nursing Review, 33 1 19-21 1986.
4. Terminal Care - their death in your hands. Professional Nurse, 2 2 51 1986.
5. Counselling Mentally Handicapped Women. Workshop presented to British Psychological Conference, London 1986.
6. Bereavement Counselling with Women. Workshop presented to British Psychological Society Counselling Conference, London 1986.
7. Dying People- how do nurses feel and what training do they want? Paper presented to British Psychological Society Conference, London 1987.
8. A Basic Grade Training Programme. Main author with Coate, Kerfoot, Maltby, Parker, Powell and Wycherley, Clin. Psych. Forum 14 pp 16-19 April 1988.
9. Telling People They are Dying. Paper presented to the British Psychological Society Counselling Conference, Leeds 1988.
10. Death Anxiety in Nurses. Paper presented to British Psychological Society Conference, London 1988.
11. Professional Interpersonal Skills. Workshop presented to British Psychological Society Counselling Conference, London 1988.
12. Coping with Change. International Nursing Review Jan/Feb 1989.
13. Dying, Disability and Sexuality. Paper presented to 9th Annual Merseyside Psychology Conference, Current Issues in Clinical Psychology, September 1989.
14. Grief and Loss for People with Learning Disabilities - helping staff to cope. Paper presented to South East Thames Regional Psychologists, October 1989.
15. Psychotherapy and Mental Handicap Co-edited with Alexis Waitman. Sage 1992
16. Gentle Teaching. Nursing Times 89. 9. 62-64 1993
17. Assessing the Potential to Parent: how does psychometry measure up? Paper presented to BILD Conference. Scarborough 1994.

18. Gentle Teaching. Paper presented to National Forum for Learning Disabilities Conference, University of York. April 1995.
19. Counselling in the Broom Cupboard. The Use of Metaphor and Symbolic Play in Work with Learning Disabled Clients. Paper presented to British Psychological Society Division of Counselling Psychology Conference York, 1996.
20. Assessment of Parenting Potential in People with LD. Paper presented to Sussex Law Courts 1998
21. People with Learning Disabilities and the Courts. Paper presented to DCP Beyond the Basics conference (LD Special Interest Group) Abergavenny, 1998.
22. The Cognitive Interview - a multi purpose approach to interviewing people with learning disabilities. Presented at 6th World Congress on Innovations in Psychiatry - Westminster Central Hall, London 2000.
23. Animal Abuse and Interpersonal Violence. Companion Animal Behaviour Therapy Study Group Website February 2001.
24. The Cognitive Interview: a multi purpose approach to interviewing people with learning disabilities. Clinical Psychology Forum 2001 2 17-20
25. Kidney Transplants: viewpoint. Journal of the Feline Advisory Bureau 41 3 p73
26. Vaccinations: too many, too often? Paws4Rescue 36, July 2005 pp 25-28
27. Vulnerable Adults; assessing capacity to consent. Clinical Psychology Forum 158 19-23 2006
28. The Concept of 'Psychological Safety': a proposal for a service philosophy. Clinical Psychology Forum 186 pp 50-54 2008
29. CLDT Carer Counselling Service: an evaluation. With Jane Steeples 2007. CLDT journal.
30. Palliative and Rehabilitative Care for Adults with Learning Disabilities. With Jo Lee. In preparation.
31. Research Opportunities in Virtual Reality: get a (second) life and treat your inner geek. Paper presented to Sussex Partnership research conference 15th December 2008.
32. Health Innovations Expo 2009. Co-presenter with Dave Taylor (Imperial College) and Val Hall (Brighton University) of Second Life virtual world research and practice. ExCel Centre, London Docklands 18th – 19th June. Subsequently interviewed for the Economist http://www.economist.com/sciencetechnology/displaystory.cfm?story_id=13899038, The Brighton Argus http://www.theargus.co.uk/news/4461750.Brighton_patients_to_be_sent_into_virtual_world, BBC Radio Sussex and 'Future Tense' an ABC Radio Australia production.

33. Hall, V., Taylor, D., Jarvis, E., and Conboy-Hill, S. Towards an NHS toolkit for obtaining consent for hospital admission from adults with learning disability incorporating a novel virtual world experience and a specialist interview technique. Poster presented at Sussex Partnership NHS Foundation Trust Research conference, University of Sussex 25 June 2009.

Up coming

34. Buchanan, M., Frith, H., Conboy-Hill, S. Towards utilising SenseCam as part of a range of Positive Psychology interventions to increase subjective well-being (happiness) in adults with learning disabilities. Poster presentation, SenseCam conference, Chicago, October 14th 15th 2009.
35. 'My new best friend is an avatar: riding the technological wave with astonishing partners towards next generation solutions'. Presentation to the Curious Minds conference, Surrey and Borders Partnership Trust, November 26th 2009.

Additional Workshops

1. Gentle Teaching and the Parent Child Game 1995
2. Expert Witness Skills - to South Downs Health Psychologists 1997
3. Assessing Capacity to Consent. Presentation to South Downs Health NHS Trust Clinical Governance conference 2000.
4. CLDT Debate: presenting the motion that the CLDT is an expensive waste of resources and should be abolished. December 2004
5. Vulnerable Adults: Assessing Capacity to Consent. Presentation to Ashwood Medico-Legal Forum January 2008.
6. Cognitive Interview training to multi disciplinary groups x 2/3 per year 2000 to date, including psychologists, nurses, social workers, doctors and IMCAs.

See also

1. Written feedback to the Scrutiny Committee for the Mental Capacity Bill. 2003 Memorandum 134 at <http://www.parliament.the-stationery-office.co.uk/pa/jt200203/jtselect/jtdmi/189/189we91.htm>
2. Human Trafficking: BPS response with Prof. Jane Ireland to government consultation 2006.